

For the 2021-2022 school year, Greenville Middle will not send a supply list out to parents. The school will be able to provide the basic materials the students will need in their classrooms such as paper and pencils. However, we do ask that students have backpacks with a laptop compartment to protect their Chromebook.